

REFIMI is an organization of skilled professionals, each with several years of experience working in major international auditing companies.

The deep commitment of our certified partners, all enrolled in the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and Auditors, is the fundamental quality that ensures the maximum efficiency of our professional services and value creation for our Clients.

“The energy, passion and flexibility of our resources is at your service.”